

HEY READERS!

OGy here from Ghosty Scanlations, the scanlator group for this comic, "Going in the Wrong Direction" by Henja. This is a relatively new comic from Lezhin Comics.

We hope you enjoy this series.

But what I really wanted to say was:

WE NEED HELP

A lot of it, too. We really really want to pick up more projects like these. But we are so under-staffed that it is simply not possible for us right now. More members would also make our releases faster and more frequent. We're looking for all positions from cleaner/typesetters to translators/proofreaders, though specifically more translators (Korean to English).

We work on romance, drama, shoujo (Korean sunjeong), or slice of life webtoons but of course we're not opposed to other genres.

We welcome people at all skill levels although we will not be able to provide much training with using software for cleaning although we will be able to provide useful resources for learning if needed!

This has gotten really long, so more details are available on our website at:

ghostyscanlations.weebly.com. If interested, you can fill out the recruitment form there and we'll get back to you ASAP.
